

Runtriz gets hotels on the high-tech bandwagon

AH&LA SmartBrief | 10/13/2008

Software firm Runtriz is working to help hotels get up to speed in meeting guests' high-tech needs. The firm has launched its Hotel Evolution product at the Malibu Beach Inn in California, in which guests can have their iPhone or iPod Touch devices loaded with the hotel's Web site, or they are provided with a pre-loaded iPod Touch to use during their stay.
